A New HOSPITAL For Pipes

Pipe Smokers of Paducah are going to be mighty glad to learn of the establishment of our new Pipe Hospital, with its splendid equipment for pipe-surgery.

Pipes are old friends, worthy of the best attention you can secure for them—and we assure you of the most satisfactory service. Amber bits are quickly repaired when broken pipes are thoroughly cleaned and overhauled; in short, when you get them back, they're like new.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Brilliant Musical Event.
A beautiful musical evening was featured last night at the Woman's club house by Miss Newell, chairman of the Musical department of the club. It was the final open meeting of the club for the year and was a brilliant event. The cantata "A Mid-Summer Night" was given with splendid effect by the following notable talent:

Soprano: Mrs. Lela Wade Lewis, Miss Anne Bradshaw, Miss Anna Hill, Mezzo-soprano: Mrs. W. C. Gray, Mrs. John Brooks, Miss Marjorie Lovins.

Altos: Mrs. Krug, Miss Elva Jones, Miss Kate Crumbaugh, Miss McElathery.

Contralto: Mrs. James Weille. The cantata is a three-part chorus of women's voices with soprano, mezzo-soprano and alto solos and the characters were:

Spirit of Silence of the Night, soprano—Mrs. Lela Wade Lewis.

Spirit of Storm, mezzo-soprano—Mrs. John Brooks.

Spirit of Danger, contralto—Mrs. James Weille.

Chorus: Stars and Fireflies, Shadows, Stormfields, Raindrops, Birds and Shadows.

Miss Newell presided at the piano during the evening.

The program was most enthusiastically received. The closing duet by Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Weille was given an especial encore. The following numbers were beautifully rendered:

1. Trio Chorus—"Brightly Beaming in the Heavens Above" (Stars and Fireflies.)

2. Solo, "Over Hill and Dale" (Silence of Night) with full chorus.

3. Solo—"Make Way! Make Room!" (Spirit of Danger) with chorus "Shadow Dance."

4. Solo—"Oho! Oho! Vassals of Mine" (Spirit of Storm) with chorus "Peal on Peal!"

5. Trio: "Hear the Monotonous Beat of the Rain"—Miss Hill, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Weille.

6. Duet, (Sleep Song of the Rain) "Rest and be Still"—Miss Hill, Mrs. Weille and full chorus with solo, soprano—Mrs. Lewis.

7. Duet, "Come Birds of the Wild Wood Free"—Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Weille.

8. Finale, "Brightly Beaming in the Heavens Above"—Full chorus.

In opening the evening Miss Newell made a charming little talk in presentation of the program. She was followed by Miss Anne Bradshaw who sang most delightfully the following group of songs:

1. "The Doves," Loe.

2. (a) "Brown Eyes"—Riego; "In a Garden," Hawley—Miss Anne Bradshaw.

The club auditorium had been attractively decorated for the occasion and the platform was a bank of ferns, palms and flowers that made an effective background for the charming women in their pretty evening gowns.

Informal Bridge Party for Mrs. Overton Brooks.

Mrs. John Brooks entertained most charmingly at bridge Thursday afternoon at her home on Broadway in compliment to Mrs. Overton Brooks, of Chicago, an attractive recent bride, the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. David Koger. It was a pretty planned informal affair consisting of two tables at bridge. Mrs. Brooks' apartments were most attractive in their appointments and a delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. Pat McElathery captured the

TIME WAS UP.
It Was Quit Coffee or Die.

When a woman is brought to the edge of the grave by poisoning from the drinking of ordinary coffee day by day, and is then made a well woman by leaving it off, her experience is worth something to others that are poisoned in various ways from the same habit.

A New Haven, Conn., woman says: "Four years ago my life hung on a very slender thread with liver, kidney and heart trouble, and a very severe form of rheumatism. I was confined to bed with hand, wrist, feet and ankles so badly swollen that they bore no resemblance to parts of the human body."

"I had frequent sinking spells from heart weakness when I was thought to be dying and sometimes thought to be dead. My doctor, one of the directors of the State Hospital, a very successful man in his profession, told me to stop drinking coffee and use Postum, as he said coffee was the primary cause of my trouble."

"I took his advice at once and also discontinued medicines. Slowly the swelling disappeared, and the rheumatism left me; the sinking spells became less frequent, and I got out of bed and round the house. I was completely cured but is required some time."

"For the past three years I have been a perfectly strong, healthy woman, sleep well, with good appetite, good color, active and energetic."

"It is a great pleasure to testify for Postum which has made me a well woman again. I have many friends here and in other parts of the state who are using Postum regularly, and I know to their very great benefit."

prize for the highest game score and Mrs. Overton Brooks won the guest prize. Those present were: Mrs. Turner, of Memphis; Mrs. Overton Brooks, of Chicago; Mrs. Pat McElathery, Mrs. Calhoun Rieke, Mrs. James Utterback, Mrs. David Koger, Mrs. King Brooks, Miss Sadie Paxton.

Delightful Art Program.
The Art department of the Woman's club will hold its final meeting tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the club house. An attractive program will be presented as follows:

Piano solo—"Caprice Espanole"—Mrs. Frank Burns.

Paper—Mariano Fortiny—Mrs. John Little.

"Present Day in Spain"—Mrs. Victor Voris.

Song—"In Old Madrid"—Mrs. Stoddard Robertson.

Paducah Woman on Cincinnati Biennial Board.

Kentucky club-women, those from Paducah in especial, may expect a warm personal greeting on arriving at the Biennial in Cincinnati as a Paducah woman is chairman of the Triennial Reception committee. This is Mrs. William H. Gregg, of Norwood, a Cincinnati suburb. She was formerly Miss Lizzie Harris, a brilliant and popular Paducah girl. She is the daughter of Mrs. Mary D. Harris of this city and the sister of Mrs. George O. Hart and Mrs. Henry Rankin and has a host of friends here. Although she has been away from Paducah a number of years, her remembrance of her former home is still keen as a letter received by Mrs. James A. Rudy, president of the Paducah Woman's club and read at the club yesterday indicates.

Mrs. Gregg said in part:

"I have heard, that you and other Paducah friends will attend Biennial at Cincinnati. Will you kindly let me know, by return mail if possible at what time your delegation will arrive, and also the size of Kentucky delegation, if you have that information. I want to have the pleasure of giving the delegation from my old home a personal welcome."

Elks Dance Tonight.

The Elks will be the hosts at a dance at their club house this evening at 9 o'clock. A number of visitors will be present and it promises to be an unusually delightful affair.

Ladies' Day at Elks Home.

Ladies' day at the Elks home was pleasantly featured by a euchre party given by the young ladies. During the afternoon punch and sandwiches were served. Mrs. Wynne Tuley captured the first prize and the lone hand went to Mrs. Harry Singleton.

Pretty Evening Reception.

A delightful social event of the week was the reception, given by Judge James Campbell and Mrs. Campbell last evening from 9 to 12 o'clock in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Will Rinehart, a recent bride and bridegroom.

The home was attractive with ferns and palms, and pink carnations effectively combined with snail and honeysuckle. The stairway was twined with smilax and banked with palms and pink flowers.

Receiving with Judge and Mrs. Campbell in the drawing room were: Mr. and Mrs. Will Rinehart, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bradshaw, Jr., Mrs. Sue Wheeler Hodge, Mrs. Rinkhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Singleton, Miss Rosebud Hobson, Mr. Charles Rieke.

A delicious ice course with mints was served in which the pink and white color motif was prettily carried out.

An orchestra played during the evening adding to the pleasure of the occasion. The guest list was limited to the young society element and the intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom.

Kalosophic Club's Final Meeting of Year.

The Kalosophic club held its final meeting for the club year this morning at the Woman's club house. In addition to the regular program, several special matters were before the club. Mrs. Henry Rudy was re-elected to membership in the club in place of Miss Blanche Hills, who resigned last week. Miss Annie May Yelver was appointed to represent the club at the Woman's Biennial at Cincinnati next week. The new year-books were given out. They are most attractive and feature the club's second year in the study of French history, literature and art. The program consisted of the following interesting papers:

1. Period of the Jacobins and Girondists, Robespierre and Marat—Miss Elizabeth Sinnott.

2. Life and Death of Madame Roland—Mrs. James Campbell, Jr.

Gov. Wilson Was Lion of Richmond Banquet.

Richmond, Ind., May 6.—Gov. Augustus E. Wilson, of Kentucky, who was the principal speaker here on Monday evening, on the occasion of the annual meeting of the Richmond Commercial club, made a big hit with his hearers, and his fame as a happy, eloquent and able talker was extended. The banquet was held in the Young Men's Christian association hall, and about 250 business and professional men were present. There were a number of other speakers besides Governor Wilson, among them being William Dudley Foulke, of this city; George P. Early of Pittsburgh, and others. Governor Wilson was given the closest attention and time and again he was interrupted by applause. The distinguished Kentuckian made friends of every one of the Richmond citizens whom he met here, and during the toast one was drunk to Kentucky, which was felicitated on having for its chief executive such a man as Governor Wilson.

Will R. Hendrick, the district agent at Paducah for the good old Shawnee Fire Insurance company, together with the company's Special Agent Hugh Young, came up last Thursday evening to inspect the town where this splendid company has placed a great amount of business. Will now has one of the best businesses in Paducah in this line, which he has by his own energy and pluck built from the ground up, in a few years, in the very midst of sharp and active competition. He is another Smithland boy that we finished up and gave over to Paducah to hold her own in order to keep Smithland from outstripping her in the march of time and progress—Smithland Banner.

WATCH WITNESSES CLOSELY.

Eckstein Admits Conferring With F. Augustus Heinze.

New York, May 6.—Indications that the government is keeping a close watch on its witnesses was supplied by the first question put at today's session of the trial of Augustus Heinze in the United States circuit court.

"Since yesterday afternoon you have conferred with the defendant, isn't that true?" United States District Attorney Wise demanded of Frederick Eckstein, who resumed the witness stand.

Eckstein admitted to talking "in a general way" about his testimony with F. Augustus Heinze since yesterday.
